'Freedom to Manage' in place for employee suggestions

As outlined by Administrator Sean O'Keefe, NASA has begun the "Freedom to Manage" program to remove barriers to effectiveness and efficiency present in the Agency. Impediments of any kind are open to examination, analysis and possible elimination in this program. A Web site where employees may suggest ideas to eliminate barriers is at <http://f2m.nasa.gov/>

Free Huntsville Stars baseball game tickets available

The annual "NASA Goes to the Stars" baseball game is June 17 and free tickets to Marshall team members are available beginning June 4 at the NASA Exchange, Bldg. 4203 cafeteria and the Wellness Center. Each ticket will admit four. The Huntsville Stars will play the Chattanooga Lookouts at 7:05 p.m. at Joe Davis Stadium. The first 2,000 children attending will receive a free coloring book. Watch for announcements on how to receive a free box seat for four.

Bldg. 4200 construction work

Work to re-caulk windows on the north side of Bldg. 4200 has begun. The area north/northwest of the main entrance on the patio alongside Morris Auditorium is inaccessible. Please plan entries and exits to avoid this work.
